PETITION TO ACCEPT AN UNINTENTIONALLY DELAYED PRIORITY CLAIM

Applicants hereby petition under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(3) that an unintentionally delayed priority claim under 35 USC 120 be accepted for the above-referenced application. Below, this Petition establishes the proper priority for this application, as well as the unintentional nature of Applicant's delay in setting forth a claim to this priority.

Proper Priority Claim

The proper priority for this application follows:

CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATION

This application claims the benefit of priority to U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 10/683,629 entitled "Pin Assembly for Track Roller Bogie of Track-Type Drive System" filed on October 14, 2003, and now abandoned, the entire contents of which are incorporated herein by reference.

An amendment to supplement the Specification with a claim to this priority is included in the Reply to the Office Action of March 7, 2008. A copy of the March 7 Amendment is provided herewith, and entry of the Amendment is hereby again requested.

Unintentional Delay in Submission of the Priority Claim

Applicant's delay in setting forth a claim to this priority was unintentional. As established by the attached declaration, through their agent, Mutsumi International Patent

Attorney's Docket No.: 23697-015US1 / NF-2981

Bureau, Komatsu Ltd. instructed timely submission of the above noted priority claim by their U.S. patent counsel Everest Intellectual Property Law Group. Komatsu Ltd. was not informed of the absence of submission of this priority claim until they received the Office Action mailed March 7, 2008 from Everest Intellectual Property Law Group. Upon being notified, Komatsu Ltd. timely responded with submission of the priority claim. As such, the entire delay between the date that the priority claim was due under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2)(ii) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional.

Please apply a fee for the Petition to Accept an Unintentionally Delayed Priority Claim and any other charges or credits to Deposit Account No. 06-1050.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: July 7 2008
